

Dear FCC

Ogden Valley Transmission Special Service District supports the position of the National Translator Association and its goals to improve television service to rural areas. Ogden Valley is surrounded by ten thousand foot mountains, and receiving signals through our translators is very difficult. This proposal would provide our five thousand viewers better quality television.

Sincerely

Kay M. Richins

Secretary, Board of Trustees